Comment Do the ship Logs still exist? I won a Navy Times prize for the best rhyming log in the navy for January 1, 1961? and would like to retrieve a copy.

Hi Leslie, Sorry to mislead you, I was not a Master Chief. When I created the website one of the past presidents of the Retirement Association said Web Master Chief sounded better than Web Master. As a joke I created a WWW rating for the chevrons. I served aboard the DM from Dec. 1958 to Sept 1960 in Fox Division as a 3rd Class. I agree with you that the Navy CPO's were the true leaders. I worked as a volunteer at the Southern California National Archives. They have the deck logs you are interested in, but they are on microfilm and you have to write to them at College Park, Maryland for DVD copies or hire people to research it for you. The rolls may cover a number of years and you have to purchase the whole roll, probably approximately $125 per roll (that is the price they quoted me for the Muster Lists). If you know the year, it is not a bad price for a whole roll. If you do that please share the DVD with me and I will include it on the website. I have attached two letters from the National Archives which should give you the information you need to contact them.

Season Greetings Inbox Phil Roberts <robertspd@gmail.com> Dec 19, 2020, 6:38 PM to me

Dear Jerry, I just wanted to tell you of my heartfelt appreciation for your dedication to the memory of our ship. I know I speak for thousands of sailors who served aboard this wonderful beautiful ship. I am sure we all remain supportive of the USS Salem Museum to help preserve the memory, the love of shipmates and that of our ship. When this awful pandemic is behind us, I want to visit with you to thank you in person and to strategize how we preserve our website for future generations. In the meantime, please keep up your much appreciated work. Let me know if you face any financial obstacles to your continuing efforts. Have a wonderful holiday season, despite all of this disease. We can see the end of the tunnel now. Keep safe and well. Your shipmate, Phil

Phil, Thank you for your kind words. I keep the website going out of Love of Country, the US Navy and my love of history. The cost hosting the website and owning the domain name are very cheap. I am slowing down and have a box of photos and other things I need to scan and upload to the website. I have a couple of websites and have instructed my son to keep them online after I die. Of course he will not update them, but he will make sure they do not disappear from the internet during his lifetime. But perhaps I could make other arrangements. There is one thing I wanted to obtain from the National Archives and that is the full muster rolls from 1950 thru 1956; also the complete muster rolls for 1949 (I have a few months of 1949). But they want $250 per DVD Roll and that would be 4 rolls (1949-1950, 1951-1952, 1953-1954, and 1955-1956). see attached. The National Archives may also have micro filmed or digitized the Deck Logs (I do have 6 months of 1955) but I do not know what the cost would be for those. To conserve the data I collected for my website for the schools in my hometown, I am sending the digital data to the town's historical society, church parish and to the public high school and junior college. So hopefully the research and improvements will not go to waste. Hard to say what they will do with it. I know if I were them I would expand on it. Merry Christmas to you and your family. Jerry and Joanna Manriquez

My dad passed away on January 2, 2014. He always spoke very highly of the men of the Des Moines and enjoyed going to the reunions. I came across this website as I was researching a book about my dad and his three brothers, before, during and after WWII. I noticed that my dad was not listed on TAPS. I thought you should know. I was saddened but resigned to hear of the dissolving of the association. Thank you and all that served aboard Daisy Mae. Sincerely, James R. Turcotte

Comment Hi! My dad recently passed away and I just found out that he was stationed on the USS Des Moines, so I'm just looking exploring to see what I can find to better understand my dad's experience. Also, my son is about to join the Navy, so I'm extra interested now. My dad was John Ray Corkins and he was a disbursement clerk, I think, but I'm not sure of the years. He was from Wilmington, VT. It would have been mid-late 50s.

Whenever we tied up to a dock or breakwater, both gangways would be on the same side, except a time or two I remember tying up to a dock or breakwater and have an Officer's gangway on the opposite side for their boats a time or two in my 10 months in 1st Div. Staggered gang planks were only used when anchored or at a buoy, to avoid interference with the Ship's boat(s) traffic, at least from late July '59 to March '61.

I sent three photos One is the D/M at Buoy #1 in July 1959, in Full Dress, for both monthly Holidays. The only time each year the Ship was ever at Full Dress due to military readiness. The second photo is the 30 November "Man the Rail" Practice for Ike's visit two weeks later. The third is Ike's Arrival aboard the D/M 15 Dec. while the Ship was anchored off Pireaus Greece.

All thee are US Navy Photographs (Released). I just happen to be in two of those photographs! The Man the Rail photo was taken on my Birthday six days short of 60 years ago!! I was no longer a teenager, and the big deal to me was the baking of a Birthday Cake on one's Birthday as I had never had a Birthday Cake in my life!! Hi Arthur

The Reunion Association disbanded August 2019. I am sorry that the Association did not keep the ship's stores with the Des Moines items. I understand that what was not taken by those who attended was thrown into the trash. Sorry.

It would have made more sense for someone to keep it. We could have listed the items on the website and sent items to anyone who wanted it and just charge them shipping and handling. Or we could have donated the clothing to the homeless.

But if you want to order a ball cap from a website that does custom items, try:

<https://www.militarygifts.com/OldSaltCap>

They Charge $29.95 plus shipping

She was a Beautiful Ship, and at the time I was Aboard her, she was the Flagship of the 6th Fleet. She relieved the Salem in January or February of 1958, and the Salem went back to the USA to be Decommissioned. For all the years the Daisy Mae spent being Decommissioned, it's sad that she never got made into a Museum like the Salem did, and that she ended up being Scrapped for Razor Blades or whatever in Texas. She would have made a G-R-E-A-T Museum, as I'm sure the Salem is.

I have a piece of Railing from the Daisy Mae hanging on my Navy Memorial Wall in my Sun Room, so at least I do have a piece of her to constantly remind me of being Aboard her for 3 years of my 4 years in the Navy. I spent the rest of my enlistment on the USS Boston CAG-1 in Boston up until Nov. 1961.

Response from Jerry Manriquez

When I was aboard, 1957-1960 the Captain said when we returned to the States he was going to divert across the equator so we all could become shellbacks.

Too bad your Captain did not do this for you guys.

Jerry Manriquez

President

No one is really sure when or how the Line Crossing Ceremony, "Order of Neptune", came about. The ritual dates back at least 400 years in Western seafaring.

The ceremony observes a mariner's transformation from slimy Pollywog, a seaman who hasn't crossed the equator, to trusty Shellback, also called a Son or Daughter of Neptune. It was a way for sailors to be tested for their seaworthiness.

When a ship crosses the equator, King Neptune comes aboard to exercise authority over his domain and to judge charges brought against Pollywogs that they are only posing as sailors and haven't paid proper homage to the god of the sea.

High ranking members of the crew and those who have been Shellbacks the longest dress up in elaborate costume and each play the part of King Neptune's court. For instance, the ship's captain might play the part of King Neptune himself. What proceeds is a day of festivities, which builds camaraderie among the seafaring crew

Comment I am writing a book about my father's military service time on the USS Des Moines CA-134 Jerry the web master has been helping me with a lot of information. But Now I can't get ahold of him. I have some ship logs I purchased and would like to donate to the USS Des Moines Ca-134 web site. I sent them to Jerry but got no response. I hope he is okay. Please could you tell me was there a cruise ship for 1949 or 1950. My father was in the Mediterean Sept. 1949-Jan. 1950, and again in September 1950. Did your ship have its own newspaper? What was it called and where can I view them? I have read a lot of the All Hands but the USS Des Moines Ca-134 is not mentioned in those magazines. Can you please direct me? Thank you greatly, Sheliah Shepard, Daughter of John Pilon , USS Des Moines Ca-134 1948-1951

Response to Sheliah Shepard

Sheliah,

Sorry I did not respond earlier, I was on an extended trip. I emailed everyone on my email list who served from 1948 to 1950 asking them if they had a cruise book. Here is the response I received:

My name is Clair Buckingham and I was on the ship from the shakedown until 1952. I have the 1951-1952 cruise book which is the first one you list and I don't remember any ones for the first two cruises in 1949 and 1950. It was only the latter cruises when someone decided that a book would be nice.

I have a number of ship's newspapers on the website, but you are looking for the early ones called the Hawkeye. I found some of them at our latest reunion and will put them on line sometime in the near future.

When you finish the book, I would like to put it on the website under personal stories.

The following letter was sent to Theodore Weimer's Family.

On behalf of the USS Des Moines Reunion Association I would like to extend our sympathy to Theodore's family. His shipmates shared an unforgettable experience with Ted that ties us together forever.

You will find his picture in two cruise books on our website: USSDESMOINES.COM, the 1955-56 book and the 1957 Spring Book; he was in the 7th Division. (Anything on the Website can be downloaded). Since he was from CT I assume he went to Boot Camp in Bainbridge. Maryland. We do have a book online for Bainbridge so you can see what his experience would have been like during Boot Camp.

Holly you said your Father served from 1956 to 1960

The Sept. 1958 Muster List shows him as a Seaman, transferring from the USS Salem CA-139 on Sept. 15, 1958.

The March 1960 Muster List shows him as a Gunner's Mate Third Class (E4) and I think it says he enlisted in Oct. 1956. He is not on the June 1960 Muster List, so he must have been discharged between March and June 1960. I looked in the last Cruise Book (1958) to find his picture but he must have come aboard right after they published it. Since he was a Gunner's Mate, he would have been in one of the Gunnery Department Divisions which were 1 to 7.

The May 17, 1960 Daily Muster List shows Robert Sanford. I believe this is when he left the ship. Copies of all the Muster List's have been attached.

Therefore the data on the TAPs sheet will be changed on the next update to GM3 and show that he served aboard the USS Des Moines from 1958-1960; not the total time he served in the Navy.

Holly,

If you want your Father's military records (probably over 20 pages of data) send a form to the National Archives in St. Louis. See the article on the Des Moines Website. As his Daughter you will get the records free of charge and it could take 3 to 4 weeks to receive them. The information I show about the National Archive may have been modified, so go to their site online and check it out.

Comment Hi, My older brother Harold Kenneth Brown EM3 served aboard The USS Des Moines between 1957 and 1958. There was 17 years between us and I have been trying to find out about my big brother who I barely knew, as he joined the Navy when I was 2 months old passed away at the age of 20 when I was just 3 1/2 years old. Thanks to your Muster Roll section I was able to find that he was transferred from USS Iowa to the USS Des Moines on Nov 7, 1957 and served there until his death on Nov 7, 1958 when according to the telegram sent to my parents he " was struck by a vehicle while on shore leave in Genoa Italy". That is all we were ever told about his death. Harold joined the Navy on his 17th birthday and was going to reenlist in May 1959. He told my parents he wanted to make it his career. I want you to know that according to his letters and what my parents told me, he loved the Navy, serving aboard the Des Moines and his shipmates. Thank you for the Muster Rolls that were posted, it fills in a little of my puzzle. I wish I had asked my parents more when there were still here, I know is a long shot, and maybe to much to ask, but if any of your members remember Harold, I would love to hear what they have to say, good or bad. By the way if Harold were alive today I believe he would love what you have done to keep in touch with others that served together PS sorry I don't know Rating and division, I'm not sure which column is which on the rolls except name, rank and service number. Thanks for listening, Diane (Brown) Johnston

Diane Johnston, Your brother Harold was in E Division. He was an Electrician's Mate 3rd Class. I found his picture in the 1957-58 Cruise Book. Here is the link to the Cruise Book: Look on pages 101-104, Harold is in the front row of pictures number two. (copy and paste the following URL's)

Comment I was a Midshipman 3/C in the summer of 1956 and the USS Des Moines was part of the training fleet for our 3/C and 1/C Midshipman. I had the privilege of serving my training cruise on the USS Des Moines. During the 6 weeks that I was on board, I fell in love with that ship. I was so impressed with the ship and crew, that if someone had offered to let me stay on board, I would have chucked the Naval Academy and enlisted right there. As it was, I ended up spending 26 years in the USAF. I never got on board again, but every time that I was in Philly, I would go visit her. But I digress; the reason that I dropped this note is that I cannot find any mention of the Lady visiting either Hamburg or Stockholm (our ports of call) in your 1956 Cruise Books. The only thing I can offer are a few picture pages from the 1959 USNA Lucky Bag. I would be happy to scan them and send them to you, but they are primarily pictures of Mid'ns. The fleet broke into smaller units after we reached Europe and the ships were scattered among a number of ports. Please let me know if you would like copies of what little I have. Regards, John

John,

The list of ports of call for the Des Moines was on the website. The links are in Blue. I do have brochures which I have not put on the website yet, and there may be one from Stockholm.

We would be happy to include your pictures from the 1959 USNA Lucky Bag. Include your Midshipman picture so we can see what you looked like in your younger day and I will put all of it in the Personal Story section. When you scan them, do it at 300 DPI.

I will also include your comments in the Comments Section.

Hello, I would like to correct information in regards to my father. I found his name in the alphabetic deceased on page 28, number 1203. His name is incorrect. His name is Edwin not Edward. His date of his passing was December 9, 2002. His state is Pa, his division is SN. Does anyone have any photos that may have him in it? I lost ones of the ship and ones he had with him in it due to a fire at my brothers home. Any information or pictures I would be grateful to see. I found an old cigarette ration card and a couple pictures of the Everglade Forrestal, a helicopter dated April 1957 that I am willing to share. Thank you for your service now and then. RESPONSE TO MARY GILLILAND SMOLNIK BY JERRY MANRIQUEZ

I am the web master for the USS Des Moines. I am correcting your Father's name, division and death date on our site. I think the dates you gave me were his enlistment dates (Nov 1954 - Oct 1958). If we did not know the Division we put in the rank or rating and your Father was a Seaman pay grade E-3 (SN)

I found his name on the June 1958 Muster List and the Sept 1958 Daily Muster List. He served in the 6th Division the whole time he was aboard; he came aboard Mar 3, 1955 and left the ship Sept 26, 1958. He was transferred to the USS Wasp (an aircraft carrier) for transportation back to Norfolk, Vir for discharge.

I found some pictures in our 1955-56 and 1957 Cruise books of your Father with his Division as well as the Muster Roll showing the date he left the ship. I will attach to this email. You can download any or all the pictures you find on our website.

If you want all the Navy Records for your Father, you can get them free from the National Archives in St. Louis free of charge for a veteran or his children. I have a tab on the website which tells you about this. The National Archives may have changed some pages on their website, but it should be easy to find out. With this info you would know all the dates he served, his duty stations, his division, promotions, medical records, etc.

I would appreciate any pictures or memorabilia you can share with us.

Jerry,

Saw on 8/11/16 guestbook where Richard Ritt's daughter was looking for info.

I had the muster rolls (16mm film and poor digital copies) for 1957 - 1961. Sent all this stuff to Bob Cockerel some years ago. Did he make it available to you?

You should receive the DVD next week.

Found the following for Ritt on my digital copy:

"Ritt Richard T. 5309139 SN SN 0 082 0 1258 0000 0000 1000 122258 11 0"

This info was on 1960 Part 2, Reel 1992. Digital file # 00121.

Don't know what some the numbers mean, but I'm sure he came aboard Dec. 22, 1958.

Have enjoyed the new site!

Hi Gerry.

I may have had something to do with this in the past?

I cannot remember how we ran across each other ten years ago (possibly thru an Radioman that had been both on the Des Moines and the Springfield?), Lt CDR Jerry Lafferty (Assistant Sixth Comm Officer) (retired as Capt.) (Docent on the USS Wisconsin in Norfolk when we met again.) and myself began emailing. He mentioned going to Bupers in Annapolis MD and looking at Ship logs for Port list, crew names and dates. Since I/we had crew names and port list for the Des Moines, some of us were looking for a Springfield Port list. Jerry provided a hand written copy of said item in a short time plus mentioning he could obtain microfiche copies of Ship's logs. (The late Jim Aker had been looking for any and all Des Moines records at the time.)

Well, in a month or so I delivered a CD full of records to Jim, whom was beyond flabbergasted that his wish came true! There were other Sixth Cruisers logs included as well.

I have been (half assed) looking for mr copy of said logs to send you, however now you have a copy. (Now what else was I doing?.....)

Ciao. Shipmate,

Do you know what division your Father was in? We may not have a picture of him since the ship did not produce another Cruise book after mid 1958. But, he may have been in one of the ship's newspapers "the Daisy Mae". I recently returned from the Ship's 41st reunion and was given a number of ship's newspapers from 1959-1961. I have not had time to scan and upload them to the website yet. I will probably get to it in the next couple of weeks.

07/13/2016 In 1950 I was a PFC, US ARMY, 1st INF DIV (BIG RED ONE) stationed in Germany. My CO had noted that some of mail was from my oldest brother VANCE JR. MITCHELL, with an address that indicated Commander Sixth Fleet. My CO suggested I should visit my Brother. Orders were cut with a French translation. I was only 16 years of age at the time (enlisted at 15). For the first night arriving in Nice area, I was green as grass. I did not know it at the time but I checked in to the most luxury hotel for the first night. Next day I brother checked me into Hotel Edward VII; I believe was in Ville France. I would ride the Admirals Barge to and from the Des Moines for meals and visits. In the MESS HALL I complimented a CPO on the good food, subsequent visits the CPO would say Soldier how is the chow and wanted me to reply in a loud voice for the benefit of the Sailors. I invited all to visit me in Germany and eat K rations with the Infantry. No takers. I was not allowed to sleep aboard because of QUARTERS ALLOWANCE. One evening after a movie on the fantail I was in the GIG and a man on a yacht was waving at us, it was Earl Flynn the actor. 45 years later I read of this same incident in Flynn's book MY WICKED WICKED WAYS. I wore the French Foureagear and BIG RED ONE patch on my uniform. People on the street would literally mob me, they remembered the BIG RED ONE some wanted to take me home with them. We drank a lot at the Plantation Bar with a lot of Marines and their GIRLFRIENDS. A French woman was so concerned about my youth and riding the train back to Germany that she escorted me to the train station and gave me Francs. On the train I fell in with Legionnaires and French solders. We exchanged brass insignia from our uniforms. When I got off the train in Germany I could have been taken as a French solider. The showed me pictures of rice paddies in a place they called Indo Cine and wanted to know if I had ever heard of it. I am so sad that the USS DES MOINES was scrapped; it was such a bib thing in my young life. I am now 82 years of age. My phone is 702-498-4875 if anyone wants to talk. My brother Vance Mitchell, YN3 at the time did typing and dictation recording for ADM Sherman or ADM Ballantine. Vance was later Commissioned and worked extensively for CNO, CINCPAC ADM MC Cain, and ADM Geyler. He is deceased.

I have shared your website with family members who knew my father and they were amazed and delighted. I found my name listed in the "Deceased" portion of the "Alphabetical Listing" section on the website. I assure you I did not die in 1993. My name is listed as item number 2891 I was a contributor in the original website. I provided a narrative on the origin of the nick name "Daisy Mae" This narrative disappeared when the new website was designed. I also provided the "ports of call" for the 1957 Med Cruise. I was on board when Navy quarterback Heisman Trophy winner George Welch served. I personally watched Bloody Mary deliver flowers to the Admiral when we anchored in Villa in 1956. The instructions say to contact the webmaster, but this is the only contact I could find so I hope this gets to that person and the correction can be made.

I am sending my 1955-56 Cruise Book and 10 copies of the Daisy Mae Newsletter, of which I was the editor, for inclusion onto the Website.

My 23 months aboard the Des Moines included one tour of the Mediterranean and two summers cruises for Midshipmen where I was in charge of writing stories for their hometown newspapers. I crossed the Atlantic eight times, rode out a hurricane off Virginia Capes where the ship rolled 42 degrees, when 46 degrees would capsize it. We had to strap ourselves into our bunks to keep from rolling out. We had numerous training exercises off Guantanamo with its warm tropical breezes and starry night skies.

I was the Captain's talker at GQ, and I remember one incident clearly even today. A tug off our port bow was pulling a target adjacent to the ship for the eight-inch gun crews. In one firing, suddenly a geyser appeared forward of the tug. Captain Adams ran across the bridge shouting, "Tell them it was a wave." Which it could have been, but I think not. Without a doubt though, Captain Adams was the very best of the three Captains I served under.

Lots of interesting times aboard the Des Moines, and a wonderful growing experience for a 20 year old.

I remember it being so hot (without air conditioning) that I took my mattress up on deck and slept under turret No. One.

My father, David A. Webster, was the Asst Gunnery Officer and then Gunnery Officer on the Des Moines from July 1950 to July 1953 under Captains Ellis and Bergin. During one of the two Med cruises while he was on board, General Dwight Eisenhower sailed in Des Moines, prior to his running for and winning the presidency. My father later went on to command three ships, the USS Cromwell (DE1014), USS Buchanan (DDG 14) and USS Dale (DLG/CG 19), retiring in 1975 with the rank of Rear Admiral. Please update your records of deceased, showing his passing on June 15, 1999. He is buried at the Naval Academy.

I was born while my Dad was at sea in the Mediterranean in November 1952. I've got both of his Des Moines Med Cruise books from that cruise and a previous one. I always wanted to run up to Philadelphia to see the ship before she was turned to scrap, but never had the chance, or made the time.

Thank you for your service to our country. And thank you for maintaining the Des Moines web site!

With much appreciation.

I was in the navy stationed in New Jersey from 1999 to 2002. While there, I volunteered to help with the USS New Jersey museum group to turn the battleship into a museum ship. While I did not go aboard Des Moines, I did go over to remove parts from other ships, and took a few pictures of Des Moines while she sat pier side, languishing. I didn't know if you would want the pictures I took in mid 2001, before security on base got tough after Sept. 11. There are only 4 and taken as best I could with the camera I had. Plus the security fences. Let me know, send me an email address and I will send those to you. Thanks.

Hello Shipmate,

We were aboard the Daisy Mae during the same time!

As for myself, 29 July '59 - 10 May '60 - 1st Div. (Side Boy, Underway Helmsman, #1 Liberty Boat Crew, plus rigging canvas, scrubbing decks, polishing bright work, cleaning fancy work, etc.. )

10 May '60 - 1 March '61 - OR Div, TAD Flag while 6th Flt was aboard, Port Scullery in route back to the USA.

Anyway talked to Jim Chapman a day or so ago and he mentioned you were looking for the Ship's Port List for the last three years.

Said document is attached.

I also have tons of photos, some of which still needs to be scanned. I did a slide show of Villefranche and Ship's Activities a couple of years ago at the Reunion. I also did a CD of photos consisting mainly of the last years of the Ship and when she was towed to Brownsville TX almost ten years ago.

I intend on sending those to you in the very near future, possibly before we leave for Florida the end of this coming week.

I shall look to see if your snail mail address is on the website, if not I will need it. (I see it indeed is.)

My snail mail address is: Louis Lockwood
10420 Sugardale St.,
Harrison, OH 45030-1734

Email is the best way to get to me. I check it at least once a day.

(Harrison is on the Ohio / Indiana State line west of Cincinnati on I-74 between Cincinnati and Indianapolis IN.)

I was at Schools Command - RM A School from April '61 until October '61, then on the Springfield until her return to Brooklyn NSY May '63

Merci Beaucoup et Ciao, Lou Lockwood

I want to thank you for Posting the Information on your Website about the upcoming event in Villefranche Sur MER on Jan 20, 2017. I am sure there will be some shipmates that will have an interest in attending or at least knowing about it.

I was just wondering if there might be a way to put in the heading The President Message (Villefranche)? I know that may be pushing it a bit. Thanks again.

Response from the Web Master: Jerry Manriquez

Hi Carl,

I took over the Web Site in October of this year. The previous web master charged too much and the hosting was very expensive also. I asked the previous web master to send me the data that was on the old site and he could not figure out how to do it so it was lost. Therefore I had to start all over with a new site and I have included data that I have dug up from my own files and others who sent me data. Any information that you have and want to send me for the web site will be greatly appreciated. Any data you send will be attributed to you. I am a volunteer and take no pay for my time and effort.

I am hoping the Reunion Association has cruise books from 1948 to the decommissioning; and from that data I can figure out all the "ports of calls" the Des Moines made. If you have any pictures that you or your shipmates took during your service, please send me a CD with that data, JPG files at least 300 DPI.

Thanks for contacting us.

Between 1955 and 1959 I lived in Messina, Sicily as my parents were missionaries there. If you recall back then the locals would be allowed on board for a visit on a specific day while the ship was in port. When I came on board the sailors that greeted me were quite surprised to see an English speaking kid (I was between 6-10 years old at the time) and I was invited to return the next day and to bring my parents along, which I did. I remember the captain as being a good sized man with greying hair most likely in his late 50's. He was courteous and kind and gave me chocolate cake and corn flakes both of which were not available in Sicily. But the thing I remember most was my mother slowly sipping a cup of American coffee as though it was a $100 glass of champagne on a 5 star cruise liner (that too was not available in Sicily). She was in absolute heaven and would recall that moment even 30 years later as one of the most enjoyable of her life.

Thank you for the wonderful memories

Looking at the roster of shipmates that I served with I noticed that 2 of my ( deceased ) buddies are not listed in Fox division. Robert G Kondrath # 1796 and James S Vass # 3305 Kondrath and Vass and I worked together in the main battery. Spot 2 over the course of 3 years 5 months that I was on Des Moines I worked in both Gun directors and both plotting rooms in the Main battery. Before I close I want to say that if I had not served on the Des Moines during my teen years ( I had my 18 th my 19 th and my twentieth birthday on board ) God only knows how I would have turned out. As it turned out I retired from the state of Ohio as a Maintenance Director. Thanks to the discipline and education that I received on board.

Thanks Dale Gibson

<http://www.popularmechanics.com/technology/a19668/1953-video-how-mechanical-computers-work/>

This 1953 training film has you covered. Forty minutes long (all of them good, I promise), it provides a slow, coherent, and exhaustive explanation of exactly how gears can do math, all framed in the context of the Navy's now-ancient but still mind-blowingly impressive fire control computers.

Well Dale,

I hope you can learn something from this film.

But, it is probably too late.

Jerry "Manny" Manriquez

Jerry

You are right it's too late. I ran forward main battery and after main battery plot for 2 years, And in all that time I only recall one time that we had a problem with one of the Mark 1 Able analog computers. In FMBP our 1st class PO Harold Ratka (Deceased Oct. 2015) used a 24" screwdriver and went in and made an adjustment. it was fixed and we had no more problems. Back in the nineteen eighties they considered bringing the Des Moines & Salem out of moth balls instead they refurbished the Iowa and the Wisconsin, An Admiral was asked are you planning on replacing the fire control computers with modern digital ones ? He replied NO they might be faster but they are no better. They were amazing machines. The reason they brought the BB back instead of the Cruisers was there was not enough room on the after deck and down below, to install the Cruise missile systems.

Many names in OI were berthed forward of the liberty section I was in, which was berthed just to starboard of #3, 8 Inch turret.

Some names I can recall were, Shoemith, P.J.Ellis, Prosper, Harry King, Case, VanSlyke, Hubbard.

Being of French/Canadian descent, I was sent on TAD to Shore Patrol Headquarters in Nice and in Beirut (a former French "holding.") as the interpreter. That was great duty.
